

DEATH SUBDUES PARIS BANDITS

CAREER OF NOTORIOUS GANG
COMES TO DRAMATIC CLOSE AS THOUSANDS WATCH.

Police Use Explosives to Dislodge
Gang and Vallet From Villa
Where They Had Taken Refuge—
Men Made Desperate Fight—
When Walls Were Rent One Was Found Dead and the Other Dying.

Paris, May 14.—The career of the last of France's notorious bandit gangs was dramatically ended this morning when about eight hours battle with police and troops, its leader, Octav Garnier, and his confederate, Vallet, were blown up by explosives in a small villa at Nogent-Sur-Sarthe, where they had taken refuge.

Shattered by shots of dynamite, their house fell in ruins when Melville was exploded under its walls. The police found Garnier dead and Vallet dying. Five policemen were wounded in the battle.

Thousands Watched Battle.

When the police arrived at the villa, which was known as the Moulin Rouge, a man hidden in the garden opened fire with a revolver. Detectives, police and gendarmes, who carried rifles, and a company of troops from the nearby barracks, joined the fighting forces. An enormous crowd gathered and more people kept swarming out from Paris as the battle progressed.

Six inspectors protected by sheets of steel furnished by a gunsmith cautiously approached the house. They encountered a murderous fire but were not wounded. Three police, however, fell seriously wounded.

A woman ran out of the house and was seized by the police. When M. Lepine, the prefect of police, arrived, he assumed command and the scene took on the aspect of a battlefield. M. Lepine decided, as he did in the case of Bennett and Dallois at Chisle-Let to blow up the bandits' lair.

The zone was sounded "cease firing" and then "retreat," and the crowds were now almost overwhelming and the severest measures were necessary to force them back. The artillery threw dynamite bombs from the interior of the building and the explosion was so great that it shook the entire town, but when the smoke and the dust cleared away, the sharp crack of rifles from the interior of the building showed the bombs had failed.

Lepine Had Close Call.

A bullet passed within an inch of M. Lepine's shoulder and buried itself in the wall of a house. It was evident after the explosion that the bandits had taken refuge in the cellar. Later they mounted to the attic from which they directed a steady fusillade. At 10:15, M. Lepine ordered electric searchlights from Paris. Another bomb was exploded followed by the clatter of broken windows and crumbling walls. Despite the fact that the villa cracked and was badly damaged it remained standing and a hail of lead continued to pour from within. Firing ceased for a time, the bandits either being exhausted or saving their ammunition, while the soldiers were forced to discontinue pending the arrival of a new stock of cartridges from Fort Nogent.

At 11:25 o'clock two more dynamite cartridges were exploded and a portion of one of the walls toppled over. Nevertheless the bandits apparently succeeded in finding shelter in what remained of the structure. Finally the fire ceased for a time and the onlookers, wearied by lack of definite action, took possession of the nearby cafes to await the outcome.

Dynamite Shatters Villa.

Another explosion was successful. It left a yawning opening in the villa, through which police dogs, with savage barks, sprang, while the police and troops sent volley after volley into the ruins. Then an armed force holding torches rushed into the ruins and discovered the two bandits on the floor. Garnier was entirely naked, appeared to be dead. Vallet was dead or dying.

The crowd of spectators, now wildly enraged, rushed up and tried to seize the bandits. With great difficulty the police drove them back and placed the dying men in automobiles. Efforts were again made by the mob to tear the desperadoes from the troops. Hundreds surrounded the prefect of police and with cries of "vive Lepine," tried to carry him off in triumph.

FOREIGNERS IN MAJORITY.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 14.—After hold two sessions to day the anthracite miners in convention here to act on the working agreement, which was agreed to by their sub-committee and coal operators adjourned until tomorrow without taking up the proposition. The day was taken up with organization. That it will be a warm discussion was indicated by proceedings to day. Almost every motion was combated. There was no effort made to ascertain the sentiment of the men. It developed today that the foreign speaking miners were in the majority. Their attitude toward the agreement is unknown.

TRAFFIC RESUMED INTO CAIRO.

Cairo, Ill., May 14.—The Cotton Belt railroad resumed traffic into Cairo through Birds Point, Mo., to day after having been shut out for more than seven weeks by floods.

SEND FOOD DOWN PIPE TO MINERS

SIX MEN ENTOMBED IN MINE AT IRONWOOD MAY BE SAVED.

With Five Dead Comrades Near They
Are Grouped 2,000 Feet Below
Surface—Double Crews of Workers
Are Fighting to Save Them.

Duluth, Minn., May 14.—Fed through a little pipe driven down to them, six of thirteen men entombed at the 2,000 foot level of the Norrie mine at Ironwood, Mich., last night, are to night grouped in a small space with five of the comrades dead beside them. Two bodies have been brought to the surface.

It is not known just what caused the accident. Some time before midnight last night something gave way on the 2,000 foot level where many men were at work.

An avalanche was loosened into the pit. The majority escaped, but thirteen blundered in a cross section. The tunnel collapsed and the thirteen were overcome at the edge of the cave-in and killed. Later searching parties found them there.

Five others were killed, where they stood.

A pipe driven downward reached the men and the mine officials learned that six were alive.

Double crews are fighting to save the six living men. But many yards of broken timbers, rock and ore must be lifted out of the passage and a new roof built as the diggers go.

The mine is controlled by the Oliver Mining company of the United States Steel corporation and at the offices of that company here late to day it was stated that there was hope that the six would be rescued.

Unless further saving takes place the remaining party expects to reach the six men who are known to be alive some time to night. The dead and the entombed men all are Slavs, except Jacob Anderson, one of the living.

PLAN TO HURRY WORK OF CONGRESS

House Leaders Think Adjournment
Can Come June 15—Senators
Not So Sanguine.

Washington, May 14.—Plans for expediting legislation to allow congress to adjourn prior to the national political conventions were considered to day at conferences of leaders of both house and senate.

The house leaders outline a program that they believe would conclude the business of the house by June 15. The senate leaders reached no definite conclusion but the finance committee will meet next Thursday, to consider plans for clearing up the calendar.

"According to our program we will be able to adjourn by June 15," said Chairman Underwood to night.

"Much will depend upon the action of the senate, however."

None of the senate leaders were sanguine as to an early adjournment. Some senators to day expressed the opinion that an adjournment on June 15 as planned by the house leaders, was entirely out of the question.

GROPED ABOUT IN DARKNESS.

Congressmen in Bad Plight When Electricity Failed—Cannon Is Facetious When He and Clayton Collide.

Washington, May 14.—Less than five minutes after the house adjourned to night the capitol electric light system broke down. Members groped their way in darkness. Matches, lighted and held aloft made little flashes in the general gloom and collisions were frequent. A belt on the dynamo that furnished the power for the lights and the elevators had broken. One of the cars was suspended between the third and second floor with Representative Adamson of Georgia imprisoned in it.

"It is the judgment of heaven," said Former Speaker Cannon, when in groping his way around in the speaker's lobby, he collided violently with Representative Clayton, whose anti-injunction bill had just been passed.

While the lights were out and the elevators remained at a standstill the capitol police and employees, organized into bands of guides and provided with candles led the members to the exits.

GREETINGS RECEIVED.

Various Churches Extend Good
Wishes to M. E. Conference—
Episcopacy Committee Report Deferred.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 14.—Further greetings from various churches were given to night to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, in session here at a reception tendered to the delegates from the federal council, Presbyterian church, Reformed Episcopal and Evangelical association.

While the report of the Episcopacy committee was expected early this week, the committee concerning the number of bishops to be retired is said to be still unable to agree. The controversy now is said to center around whether two or three shall quit active service. Until the number to be retired is decided the number of new bishops to be elected probably will not be named.

ROOSEVELT OPENS OHIO CAMPAIGN

FORMER PRESIDENT RENEWS ATTACK ON SUCCESSION.

Roosevelt Ends First Day Campaign
In Ohio at Canton—Desires to Make Issue of Principle and Not Personal Abuse.

Canton, Ohio, May 15.—The first day of Col. Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio ended to night with his first principal speech in the state. The schedule which had been arranged called for thirteen speeches and the colonel made several more than that. There were huge crowds, and in some cases huge ones, wherever he spoke.

Col. Roosevelt covered part of the ground which President Taft went over today and their paths crossed several times. The former president renewed his attack upon his successor. Col. Roosevelt denied the right of President Taft to criticize the Roosevelt administration. He took the ground that as a member of the Roosevelt cabinet, Mr. Taft was a part of the administration. Colonel Roosevelt charged that the president "had joined the enemy."

"I wish to make the issue one of principle and not of personal abuse," Col. Roosevelt said. "I see that Mr. Taft yesterday alluded to me as a demagogue, a neurotic, a flatterer, and an egotist, and engaged in honeyfugling all of you. This will not tempt me into any relation in kind. But I wish to point this out to you: your years ago Mr. Taft had not discovered that I was a flatterer, a demagogue, an egotist, and engaged in honeyfugling the people and I stood then exactly where I stand now."

Yesterday Mr. Taft made a real mistake, Col. Roosevelt said. "I don't think I was in very good taste as to the possibility of my having died in the Titanic disaster. He shall have a complete monopoly of calling me a neurotic and a demagogue and jesting about what would happen if I had died on the Titanic and all the rest of it. I ask your attention only to the great issues involved in this fight."

In his speech here tonight the colonel said:

"We have not changed position, we are progressive. We stand exactly where we stood four years ago. It was Mr. Taft who has left us and who has joined the enemy. There have been a little toward Mr. Taft can be expected in the words of Abraham Lincoln when he said 'I will stand with anybody who stands for the right; stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.'"

"I stand with all my administration," said Col. Roosevelt at another time. "I stand by it and if I am again elected president, I shall try to administer the government in the interest of all of you just as I strove to administer it before. I hope I shall be more successful, because I have learned a good deal. The presidency is a big school and I know whom to trust and whom not to trust."

In Niles, Col. Roosevelt said: "I am glad to speak here near the birthplace of William McKinley. I wish to see our tariff made along the line that McKinley, the greatest exponent of the protective tariff in our history, would have wished."

After speaking Colonel Roosevelt left for Cleveland. Tomorrow he is to go to Dayton and a number of other places.

ROOSEVELT WINS IN CALIFORNIA

Returns Indicate Former President
Is Far Ahead of Taft—Women
Voters a Big Factor in Result.

San Francisco, May 14.—Outside of San Francisco, Roosevelt apparently has carried every congressional district, his vote being especially heavy in the interior counties.

Women voters played a large part in today's primary.

Reports from all parts of the state indicate that they went to the polls in greater numbers than the men, in proportion to registration.

All the twenty-six delegates elected today were chosen at large, and according to the state law they are bound by the popular expression.

Returns received from 583 precincts out of 3,700 in the state give the following results from today's presidential preference election:

Roosevelt	26,722
Taft	16,303
LaFollette	9,954
Clark	5,974
Wilson	2,504
Others	10,387
Taft	8,416
LaFollette	4,937
Clark	3,805
Wilson	1,642

Other contests reported to day were from the fourth and the seventh districts of Mississippi and the fifth district of Louisiana.

DISAGREE ON COMMISSION FORM

Socialists Divided as to Whether
New Form Accords With Socialist Program.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 14.—After hours of debate on whether the commission form of municipal government was in accord with the Socialist program, the party's national convention to day referred the matter to the state organizations.

J. Stitt Wilson, mayor of Berkeley, Cal., declared that Socialists in California had found the non-partisan method of electing members of commissions had been the vote of "capitalist" parties and worked to the advantage of the cohesive party.

He was bitterly opposed by delegates that described the municipal committee as "only a measure of economy in the development of the capitalist machine."

A committee that had been investigating the workings of commissions in many cities was instructed to continue its inquiry and report to the Socialist congress in 1914. Reports of committees of platform and constitution will be received tomorrow and Thursday.

ANNUAL TOURNAMENT.

Illinois State Sportsmen Meet in Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., May 14.—With ideal weather conditions prevailing and over a hundred marksmen on the grounds the thirty-sixth annual tournament of the Illinois State Sportsmen association was opened at Lake View Park Tuesday morning with a 100-yard Jack Rabbit event which was divided into a series of five 20-yard contests.

Sixty-five entries contested in this event. A. C. Connor of Springfield won first with a total count of 97 targets. Mack Laehlin of Chicago was second with 96. Third money was divided between George Roll of Blue Island and E. K. Crothers of Bloomington, who tied with a count of 95.

The second event, which was shot off in the afternoon, was a 100-yard handicap contest for the Jesse Barker trophy. This was won by George Roll of Blue Island, with a count of 97. Second, Daniel Voorhees of Peoria, who counted for 95, and A. L. Stubbfield of Chicago, third, with a total of 94.

TENNESSEE FOR TAFT.

President's Friends Have Full Control of State Convention There.

Nashville, Tenn., May 14.—Four delegates at large to the national republican convention instructed to vote for Taft were selected by the Tennessee state republican convention here to night.

The platform adopted condemns the recall of judges and judicial decisions and the initiative and referendum in national government.

Taft men were in complete control of the state republican convention. The expected bolt did not take place and the delegates to the national convention for the state at large were instructed to vote for Taft.

Roosevelt leaders urged their followers to stand by the action of convention when it was apparent Taft supporters were in control.

MET AWFUL DEATH.

Malden, Mass., May 14.—Pinned in a trench by dirt and stones which caved in upon him while he and a fellow laborer were at work Daniel Smith, an employee of a local gas company was slowly baked to death by flaming illuminating gas to night.

His companion, William F. McLaughlin, was blown from the trench by an explosion and so seriously burned that he may not recover.

To keep the roaring man breathing, a piece of garden hose was placed in his mouth and the other end run out into the clear atmosphere. In this manner rescuers were able to keep him alive for more than an hour. Nine firemen were overcome by the fumes.

Father George O'Connor climbed down into the trench at the risk of his life and administered the last rites to Smith.

COOPER SOLD TO PEORIA.

Peoria, Ill., May 14.—Manager Clarence Rowland of the Dubuque Three Eye club to night announced the sale of Catcher John Cooper to Peoria. Cooper was with the Chicago White Sox for a time before being turned over to Duquaine by Comiskey.

REFUSE TO PRODUCE PAPERS WANTED

ATTORNEYS FOR STEEL CORPOR-ATION SAY DOCUMENTS ARE PRIVATE.

Government Seeks Information About
Contract Between American Sheet and Tinplate Co. and American
Can Co.—U. S. Circuit Court
Judges Will Rule on Matter.

New York, May 14.—The refusal of the attorneys of the United States Steel corporation to produce certain papers wanted by the government and the discovery that other documents which the corporation was subpoenaed to produce had either been destroyed or could not be found at today's hearing of the government suit to dissolve the corporation.

The papers which the corporation attorneys refused to produce are contracts between the American Sheet and Tinplate company, a subsidiary of the corporation, and the American Can company, whereby the can company is alleged to have secured its supply of tinplate at preferential prices.

D. G. Reed and Judge William H. Moore, directors of the steel corporation, also are directors of the can company.

"We decline to produce these contracts," announced R. V. Lindabury, chief counsel for the corporation, "on the ground that they disclose the company's private business affairs with one of its customers."

The refusal would stand, Mr. Lindabury stated, until the right of the government to possession of the documents had been ruled upon by the United States circuit court judges, to whom the testimony in the suit will be certified.

The documents, destroyed or missing, consisted of contracts between the American Tinplate company and manufacturers of tinplate machinery, whereby, it is alleged, the use of the machinery by competitors of the "steel trusts" subsidiary was prevented; of an alleged five year contract between the tinplate company and the Sharon Steel company for taking the latter's output and of similar contracts alleged to have been made by the American Sheet Steel company.

Charles V. Wheeler, secretary and treasurer of the American Sheet and Tinplate company, who had been subpoenaed to produce the contracts, testified that he had himself destroyed the machinery contracts "about 1904."

Other contracts, Wheeler said, he had been unable to find. He was ordered to make further search for them under threat of subpoena of all the officials who might have them in charge.

TAFT ASKS FOR JUSTICE IN OHIO

President Says He Wants No Favors
But Just Fairness—Pays Tribute to McKinley.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 14.—"I am here to ask you to do justice and give a square deal to an administration of the government of the United States by an Ohio man. I do not ask any favors because I am an Ohio man, but I ask justice. And I do not know any place in which I can make that appeal with more force and more right than in the home of that great Ohio president who was my friend and my benefactor, William McKinley."

That was the appeal that formed the mainstay of President Taft of the second lap of his campaign tour of Ohio. He based his appeal for support in next Tuesday's primaries largely upon the achievements of his administration and the danger that he said lay in the re-nomination and re-election of Col. Roosevelt.

The president began the day in East Liverpool and made his last speech here to night. At times he came close to Col. Roosevelt, but they never met. After speaking in Akron Mr. Taft started to walk to his car when a woman with a yellow banner intercepted him.

"I would like to know how you stand on the rights of women," she said.

"You don't want me to commit myself on that question now just for your vote do you?" replied the president, and his interrogator fell back unanswered.

The president at Akron took up his discussion of the bosses and made usual reference to Mr. Roosevelt's relations with them.

"I didn't see Mr. Roosevelt get out his elephant gun and get after my bosses," said the president.

"I may be a little witted," he said at Canton, but whether I am puzzled or not, I know the difference between truth and fiction. I know what a square deal is, and I know that he does not resemble Abraham Lincoln in any respect. And I also know the difference between a decent and a surplus."

"Listen to Mr. Roosevelt's speech. See how many indictments he draws on me on facts and how many are mere assertions."

Once or twice the president took up reciprocity and told the farmers that he was still of the opinion that it would have been a good thing if they never met. If the farmers disagree with me," he said, "it is a dead issue. But I am not going to take back my view, though it may lead them to side with the man who changes his views to get their votes."

HOUSE PASSES CLAYTON BILL

ANTI-INJUNCTION MEASURE CAR-RIED BY A VOTE OF 211 TO 31.

Limits Court Rights in Injunction
Cases Relating to Labor Questions —Provides For Peaceful Picketing and Boycotts.

Washington, May 14.—Supported by all of the progressive Republicans the house tonight passed the Clayton anti-injunction bill, 214 to 31. Every Democrat present voted for it.

The legislation is regarded as one of the most advanced steps yet taken by the interests of organized labor. Throughout the debate President Gompers, Secretary Morrison and a half dozen other members of the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor, occupied a front row in the members' gallery.

The opposition to the measure endeavored to put through a substitute drawn by Representative Sterling of Illinois. This modified the sweeping terms of the Clayton bill, but it was defeated 219 to 48. It was generally said that the Clayton measure would meet little opposition in the senate. The bill amends the law by prohibiting issue of injunctions without notice being served on those affected. Such injunctions would be effective for seven days only, and renewal would be possible only when the court was convinced such action necessary for the protection of rights of property.

"John Doe" injunctions would be impossible and the rights of "peaceful picketing" in strikes or "peaceful boycotts" would be recognized.

SENATE ARRANGES ADJOURNMENT DATE

Passes Measure Despite Fact That O'Neill Browne Blocks Legislation to Compel Passage of Appropriation Bill.

Springfield, Ill., May 14.—With the progress of all legislation blocked by Representative Lee O'Neill Browne of Ottawa, the senate steering committee to night retaliated by fixing May 29 as the date for sine die adjournment of the two special sessions of the forty-seventh general assembly.

At a night session the senate passed the final adjournment resolution and it will be reported to the house for concurrence to morrow.

Reiterating his threat of last week to hold up the business of the two special sessions until the senate passed the appropriation for the postage and mileage allowances of the members for the third special session, the minority leader to day raised the question of a quorum and objected to the transaction of business by the house. A roll call showed only 45 representatives present the number being 32 short of a quorum.

At a session to morrow, the senate, undaunted by Browne's tactics to force the passage of the mileage and postage appropriation placed the bill upon its passage and defeated it.

The measure fell ten votes short of the two-thirds necessary to pass any appropriation bill in a special session. In view of the fact that 11 senators voted against the appropriation it is unlikely that the senate will reconsider its attitude.

The measure and postage allowance, unless it does, or the house succeeds in mustering a two-third attendance, the work of the two special sessions appears to be on the rocks.

RICHESON NOW IN HOUSE OF DEATH

Slayer of Avis Linnell Will Probably go to Electric Chair Next Monday.

Boston, May 14.—Clarence V. T. Richeson, slayer of Avis Linnell, slept tonight in the death house at the Charlestown State prison. Some time next week, probably either Monday or Tuesday shortly after midnight, he will die in the electric chair, if the orders of the court are carried out.

Contrary to expectations, Richeson did not break down.

After the party had entered the jail van, policemen had to clear a way through the crowd of spectators outside the walls but there was no disturbance. As Richeson stepped out of the van and started toward the death house his head was held low. At the doorway he gave one look upward at the blue sky, which he was probably to see for the last time, and entered the windowless building.

The first act at the prison was to clothe the prisoner in the prison-made suit always given occupants of the death chamber. He was given a black and white striped outfit shirt, a pair of prison socks, a blue-black coat and a pair of trousers and shoes, all of prison make.

There are three cells in the death house, which adjoins the execution room. Richeson was given the one nearest the electric chair.

Through two weeks, alienists have been examining the prisoner as to his sanity. The governor's council will visit him tomorrow and he will probably learn at that time whether the governor considers the reports of the alienists warrant him in placing before it the petition for commutation of sentence.

DONOHUE BILL TO THIRD READING

M. W. A. RATE WAR MEASURE IS AMENDED.

Referendum Clause Is Attached
Placing Burden of Preventing Increase Upon Insurgents—Vote to Be Taken Under Direction of Woodmen Officers and State Officials.

Springfield, Ill., May 14.—Carrying a referendum, a substitute for the Donohue bill, through which the Woodmen rate war found its way into the legislature, was sent to third reading late to night in the Illinois senate and early tomorrow morning will be placed upon its passage. After a day and an evening of wrangling and conferences in which the warring Woodmen factions were unable to reach a compromise agreement in their rate controversy, the senate committee on insurance reconsidered its unfavorable action on the Donohue bill, struck out all after the enacting clause and inserted an entirely new proposition with a referendum clause attached to it.

The amended bill was advanced to third reading, despite the protests of Senator Clark to have the enacting clause stricken out.

"To you senators who won't kill this bill, I say its an open door to future trouble in the state of Illinois," vehemently declared Senator Clark, "and I warn you to keep hands off."

Under the substitute the burden of preventing the new rates from becoming effective is placed upon the insurgents. On a referendum they must muster against the proposition a majority vote of the total membership of the order. The vote is to be taken under the direction of the managing officers of the Woodmen, subject to the approval of a board composed of the state superintendent of public instruction, the state treasurer and the state superintendent of insurance.

Unless the house can muster a quorum to concur in the senate amendments to the bill, the fight of the insurgent Woodmen for legislative action will be without effect.

KILBANE WON FIGHT FROM BURNS.

Cleveland Lad Victor in Fast Ten
Round Bout in New York.

New York, May 14.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, the featherweight champion, outfought Frankie Burns of Jersey City in a fast ten round bout at the St. Nicholas Athletic club here to night.

At the ringside Kilbane weighed 122½ and Burns 122. Burns had the better of the first and fifth rounds. Otherwise it was all Kilbane. For the greater part of the battle Burns used only his left arm while Kilbane used both hands.

In the third Kilbane landed lefts to the face and a hard right uppercut which drew the blood from Burns' mouth. Burns kept putting lefts to the stomach, but the blows did not seem to affect Kilbane.

The champion was very fast in the ninth round at the close of which Burns was bleeding from the left eye. Kilbane rushed his man in the tenth sending lefts and rights to the head

MAY DAY PROGRAM AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Annual Event Proves Great Success and Witnessed by Immense Crowd—Miss Jess Campbell Crowned Queen of the May.

May Day has been beautifully observed at the Woman's college in the years past, but the exercises of Tuesday afternoon were of such a character that they will easily rank among the best ever witnessed at the institution. Heretofore the exercises were held about the middle of the afternoon but this year they did not commence until 6 o'clock and when the Japanese Lantern drill was put on the soft shadow of night was falling, which lent an added charm to an already beautiful scene. The crowning of the May Queen, Miss Jess Campbell, was most impressive and the entire program was carried out in such a perfect manner as to elicit the highest words of praise from the 2500 people present to witness the performance.

Long before the hour of 6 the friends began to arrive and soon the 900 reserved seats, which had been provided, were taken. The grounds had been outlined with a wire fence and the people were banded deep at every side and the various buildings adjoining automobiles and rigs were utilized by those who were anxious to witness the event. A splendid orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Max Swarthout, was stationed on the east side of the grounds and their contribution to the exercises was of especial worth.

Crowning of May Queen.

The program opened with the Grand march, the young ladies appearing from the college gymnasium, 210 in number. Half of them wore blue bands about their hair and the other half yellow bands, the college colors. After going through some very artistic drills they formed in two parallel lines, all kneeling in readiness for the approach of the Queen and her party. In accordance with the custom, the Queen of a year ago crowns the May Queen. As Miss Millicent Rowe, who was so honored last year, failed to arrive in time for the ceremony, the miff of honor, Miss Jessie Kennedy, a graduate of last year and now of the faculty of the Roodhouse High school, filled her place. With her were four of the attendants of last year's party—Misses Annette Rearick, Geraldine Fouché, Emily Jane Allan and Freda Fenton. The appearance of the Queen's party was the occasion of prolonged cheering from the crowd. They moved slowly down the long line of girls to the place where the crowning was to take place. The rostrum had been most artistically decorated and Miss Kennedy crowned the new queen in a most dignified and graceful manner.

The honor of the May Queen is one much coveted by the students of the college and Miss Campbell was chosen in a close contest. Her striking personality and beauty rightly won her the honors and she filled the position in a most queenly manner. Her home is in Yorktown, Ind., and she is a member of the Junior class. She wore a gown of soft white silk, trimmed with gold lace and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. Miss Helen Moore, as maid of honor, was prettily dressed in white mull. She carried a mull of white moiré, together with pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Members of Queen's Party. Miss Mildred Weaver acted as runner of the Queen's party and the attendants were Misses Elsa Richter, Cora Cathcart, Marjorie Foote, Blanche Rising, Mary Elbert and Nina Shyron. The canopy bearers were Misses Mary Lawson, Edith Holt, Freda Sidell and Ina Berryman.

The flower girls were Misses Eleanor Andre, Morine Bradley, Caroline Deane, Lois Harney, Frances Masters and Mary Edith Baumgardner. The pages were Ruth Alexander and Ruth Hackett and the little girls who acted as streamer bearers from the canopy were Josephine Miller, Bernice Gottschall, Helen Walton and Ella Engela Woodman. The dance of the Sylphs followed the crowning of the May Queen. This dance was put on by fifteen girls and was most artistically given, a quick movement being demanded. It represented the work of one of the rhythmic classes of the department of expression, taught by Miss Loveday, an assistant in that department.

Various Drills Given. The Swedding Festival March called for loud applause from the audience. The girls were dressed in pink skirts, white waists with blue sashes and carried wands to which clusters of bells were fastened.

Forty young ladies took part in "The Carnival of the Daisies." They were in daisy costumes with five girls in yellow, representing the center of the flower. They also wore dainty caps and carried chains of daisies. The movement was one most pleasing to the eye and the performers were to be congratulated upon their rendition.

The Awakening of the Poppies was by fifteen girls. They wore red skirts with waists of green poppie leaves, with hats to match. They danced until they fell asleep, when Marion DePew appeared with her magic wand and awoke them. At the conclusion all knelt and the petals dropped off, as blown by the wind. The number was one of the most beautiful of the program.

May Pole Dance. Eighty-four students took part in the May Pole dance. Three poles had been arranged in a row and there were six streamers to each pole, that formed a canopy of beauty. It is doubtful if a more pretty May pole dance was ever given at the school and there was not a hitch to mar its attractiveness. The big crowd was not slow to show its keen appreciation of this most pleasing part of the exercises.

The Japanese Lantern Drill was a new departure. Each girl carried a lantern high aloft and they formed all kinds of figures about the May poles and their work showed how perfectly they had trained for the drill. The March of the Queen's party to the college, closing the exercises, while sweet music was given by the orchestra, together with the night coming on, lent a picture that will not soon be forgotten by every one. The effect of the lights and the gathering shadows was very artistic.

The college gives this annual event with no pecuniary idea in view, except enough to cover the expenses, desiring to contribute something to the pleasure of the citizens of Jacksonville. Miss Ida Evans, the physical director, trained the girls for the Grand March and for all of the drills except two. Miss Louise Loveday, training for the dance of the Sylphs and the Carnival of Daisies. Too much praise cannot be given Miss Evans for her untiring efforts and for the ability she displayed on every hand. She received many just compliments at its close as did Miss Loveday. Miss Weaver also contributed many helpful suggestions and is equally deserving of much credit. The entire performance represents the work that is being done in the gymnastic course of the college.

Chautauqua Share List Grows Larger
Daily and Success of Enterprise is Assured—List of Subscribers.

The committee appointed Monday night to secure the remainder of the shares for the proposed chautauqua met with encouraging success and at night 115 shares had been subscribed for and several persons were yet to be seen so that the enterprise may be deemed a sure thing as far as subscriptions to shares or tickets goes.

Jacksonville would have had the chautauqua if only 100 shares had been taken, but 120 would make it far more encouraging to Mr. Shaw and justify him in securing for the affair the best of talent. Mr. Shaw will soon return and confer with the program committee and endeavor to arrange a program which will supply something that will attract all classes, be educational and at the same time entertaining and again and again it has been emphasized that this place contains within itself a great array of talent and whatever is brought here on this occasion must be of the best.

The preliminaries seem to be well arranged and now let us all without exception go to work to make it a success. Let people talk about the chautauqua and see that all know about and visit it as much as possible so that it may become an established institution.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book. This book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. MOTHER'S FRIEND BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

MATRIMONIAL RECORD DOOLIN CASE IS OUT OF COURT

Roach-Dobyne.
The following from a St. Louis paper refers to a son of C. Z. Roach of Concord:

Miss Ruth Oakley Dobyne and John Ralph Roach, traveling auditor for the Frisco railroad were married last night in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Dobyne, 6006 West Cabanne place. Mr. Dobyne is president of the Champion Shoe Machinery Co., while Mrs. Dobyne is a club woman and former president of the Twentieth Century Art club. Mr. Roach resides at 4542 McPherson avenue.

One hundred and fifty relatives and friends were present. The ceremony was held at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. T. H. Hagerty, chaplain of Ransom post No. 131, G. A. R.

Mrs. Irene Critchfield Dobyne, sister-in-law of Miss Dobyne, sang the wedding march. The decorations in the residence were pink and white, spring flowers, except the room in which the ceremony was performed, where green and white were the prevailing colors.

Miss Dobyne wore a gown of white champagne satin, trimmed with old family lace and pink chiffon and a garniture of pearls. She carried pink Killarney roses. Mrs. L. F. Makler was matron of honor. Miss Hope Dobyne and Master George Dobyne were the ribbon bearers, while Misses Margaret and Jane Makler led the wedding march as flower bearers. Supper and dance followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Z. Roach, the bridegroom's parents, his sister, Mrs. F. B. Henderson, and Mrs. Henderson of Concord, Ill., were here for the wedding, as well as Mrs. Clyde Martin, wife of the best man, and Mrs. R. E. Martin of Jacksonville, Ill. The bridegroom and bride departed over the Frisco at 11:30 o'clock p. m.

Trumbo-Rose.
The marriage of Eugene Trumbo and Miss Cynthia Rose took place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Odessa Rose, 413 Marion street, Rev. A. A. Russell officiating. At 8 o'clock a wedding supper was served by Miss Odessa Rose, assisted by Miss Carrie Trumbo, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Leah Rose. The home was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of green and white.

Mr. Trumbo is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Trumbo and a young man of sterling character. He is associated with Marion Meadows in conducting the shoe shining parlor on West State street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rose and has spent her entire life in Jacksonville. She is a young lady held in high esteem. Both Mr. and Mrs. Trumbo will have the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

John A. Rawlings has returned from Chicago, where he has been for several days with his sister, Miss Amanda Rawlings, who is a patient at Mercy hospital. Miss Rawlings is under the care of Dr. John B. Murphy and recently underwent a serious operation, from which she is recovering in a very gratifying way.

MISS WEBBER TO TAKE VACATION.

Miss Lorena Webber, public librarian, has been granted a three months' leave of absence from the library and left last night for New Hampshire to spend the summer with relatives. Miss Webber has devoted herself so unrelentingly to the interests of the library that she is greatly in need of an extended rest and she will not doubt return to the work next fall with renewed zest and enthusiasm. As librarian her work is uniformly satisfactory and she will be missed this summer. Miss Georgia Luktemeyer is acting librarian and is competent for the work and will be ably assisted by Miss Ausbury.

WOODMEN TO SPRINGFIELD.
Among the Jacksonville Woodmen who went to Springfield yesterday to appear in connection with the legislative committee relative to the Donohue bill were Alfred Wharton, E. M. Vasconcellos, C. F. Tonn, T. J. Bronson and F. D. Martin.

JUDGE THOMPSON DECIDES THAT CITY ORDINANCE IS DEFECTIVE—OMISSION OF A LINE CAUSED THE TROUBLE.

In the circuit court Tuesday the trial of the City against E. H. Doolin in an action for debt came to an abrupt close. After the jury had been selected and the taking of evidence commenced a motion was made by attorneys for Mr. Doolin that the jury be instructed to bring in a verdict of not guilty on the ground that the city ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicants is defective. After hearing arguments Judge Thompson allowed motion and the jury was so instructed. This means that the city has no valid ordinance against liquor selling and that Mr. Doolin cannot be prosecuted for any past alleged offenses. The ruling will also apply to the case of J. A. Obermeyer, which was set for this week.

The jury accepted included Austin King, R. H. Mann, William Dobson, W. H. Garrison, Graham Price, J. H. Jackson, Alex. Currier, J. W. Strawn, E. W. Ward, George Holmes, J. W. Baptist, Edward Mansfield.

The proceedings were brought in behalf of the city by City Attorney Halgrove who sought to recover $100 for each offense of liquor selling with which Mr. Doolin was charged. The attorneys for the defendant were J. Marshall Miller and Kirby, Wilson & Baldwin.

Mr. Halgrove brought suit against Mr. Doolin under an old city ordinance as he realized that there was a defect in the city ordinance as printed in the revised ordinances in 1908. After hearing argument, however, Judge Thompson ruled that the ordinance of 1908 repeated the old ordinance and as the 1908 ordinance was defective that the city really had no ordinance under which the suit could proceed. The trouble with the 1909 ordinance is that a line is omitted which should have been there, through an error made by the attorney who prepared the ordinance or by the proof reader or some one else. The omitted line doubtless provided for a penalty for a second offense, but the omission has the effect of providing two penalties for one offense. The section of the law mentioned is as follows. The words omitted belong after the word "section" in the second sentence.

"§31. Section 1.—That whoever shall, by himself or another, either as principal, clerk or servant, directly or indirectly, sell, barter or exchange any intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever within the limits of the city of Jacksonville shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. If any person shall be convicted of violating any provision of this section he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars. And in like manner, if he shall subsequently violate any provision of this section for such third and each subsequent violation he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars."

A BOLD ATTEMPT.
Mrs. O. H. Myers of Chandlerville while coming to this city a few days ago on the C. P. & St. L. in some manner dropped a diamond ring which she was carrying in her purse, into the seat beside her. She did not know that the ring was out of its proper place until the train stopped at Virginia when a young lady sitting behind her reached over, picked it up saying, "Excuse me, I want to get my ring," and walked off the car.

Mrs. Myers at the time did not think but what it was the young lady's own ring until she searched her purse and found her ring missing. She immediately informed the proper officials and the property was restored to the rightful owner, the young lady being known. Mrs. Myers was on her way to this city to visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Aikins.

Only 50 Women Can Join The Hoosier Cabinet Club for $1.00

After you study the above picture you will not wonder that women are anxious to join the Hoosier club, when by so doing they have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered to their homes on payment of only $1.00.

Think of the hundreds of needless steps every woman you know could save by having her table, pantry and cupboard, with all her tools and supplies centered in one spot.

Your energy instead of being wasted is saved and the time spent in your kitchen—the least pleasant part of your work—is reduced by one-half, the moment this famous Hoosier Cabinet comes into your home.

The Hoosier company sends its 3,000 agents a limited number of Hoosier Cabinets each year to be sold under direct supervision of the factory on the famous Hoosier Club Plan.

This year most cities received only 25 cabinets. Our urgent request secured us 50 of these cabinets for the ladies of Jacksonville.

Only 50 women, therefore, can join the club and have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered immediately on payment of $1.00; balance in a few weekly payments of $1.00. Many already have enrolled.

The Club Plan differs radically from the installment plan which often is linked with high prices and unknown goods. The low price of the Hoosier Cabinet is fixed everywhere by the factory. No Hoosier agent can sell for less or more on any terms.

So club members get a great benefit from the liberal club terms. The club probably will be filled very quickly. Those who want Hoosier Cabinets should enroll their names at once.

CONCERNING Y. M. C. A.

About 8:30 last evening a young man made a tour of the pool rooms of the city and gave this report: He found 64 young men engaged in playing pool and smoking and among them was only one young man who was a member of the Y. Are the dividends large enough on the money you have invested in the Young Men's Christian Association?

KING OF DENMARK PASSES AWAY

Frederick VIII Died at Copenhagen Last Night—Ruler Was Popular With Subjects.

Copenhagen, May 14.—The king of Denmark died to night.

Christopher Frederick was proclaimed king of Denmark as Frederick VIII on Jan. 30, 1906, after the death of Christian IV, the aged king who was dean of the crowned heads of Europe, father of King George of Greece, of the Queen Mother Alexandra of Great Britain, the Empress Dowager of Russia and grandfather of King Haakon VII of Norway.

King Frederick was born at Copenhagen June 3, 1843. He was as popular with the people of Denmark as was his father. By the wishes of his parents he was brought up with the greatest simplicity. Frederick saw his younger brother and his own son become reigning monarchs of Greece and Norway, respectively, while he himself was still an heir apparent.

King Frederick was noted for his culture and possessed many foreign distinctions. While seldom openly identifying himself with political questions, he took an active part in all public movements. He was at one time chancellor of Copenhagen university and head of the Free Masons of Denmark. He was well known as a promoter of philanthropic objects. His interest in the army, of which he was once inspector general, was keen and he introduced many reforms which improved the lot of the soldiers.

Several months ago King Frederick suffered a serious illness. While taking his customary walk he had a sudden seizure and was compelled to return to the palace. Later it was announced that he had suffered a chill, but the real nature of his malady was not disclosed.

While he showed rapid recovery, he suffered a relapse two weeks later and considerable anxiety was expressed by members of the court as to his condition.

DISINTERRED BODY.

Naperville, Ill., May 14.—Grief over the death of his wife so affected Carl Hillegan, a former resident of Naperville, that last night he disinterred her body and carried it to his mother's homestead. Today the sheriff found the body of the woman carefully wrapped in a blanket in the wagon shed. Hillegan had disappeared and a searching party headed by the sheriff started to the woods south of the city after him.

YATES TO GET GOOD POSITION

Former Governor, It Is Said, Will Be Made Head of an Important State Department.

Springfield Journal: Former Governor Yates is to be appointed to one of the best political jobs in the state, according to the word of men supposed to be close to the present state administration. It is said that the former governor has been selected to head one of the most important state departments, and that his appointment will be announced in a few months, when the term of the present official expires.

Substantiation of the report was seen by many yesterday when former Governor Yates visited the state house and spent several hours in conference with Governor DeLoach. It has been known for some time that the two had resumed friendly relations, but this is the first conference since the primaries. "Nothing momentous occurred," said Mr. Yates, following the meeting. "We had a general discussion of the approaching campaign and were agreed that the prospects for Republican success seem good."

TIME TO PRAY.

A new preacher at the close of one of his sermons, said, "Let all in the house who are paying their honest debts stand up." Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now, every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception, clothed in his last summer suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it that you are the only one among us who does not meet his obligations, my friend?" asked the preacher.

"I run the newspaper here, and these people are my subscribers," said the man. "They haven't!"

"Let us pray," said the preacher. —Warrenton (Mo.) Banner.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

E. J. Gillett of Springfield was in the city yesterday looking up the few persons whom he knew when a resident of this city, from which he went in 1862. He is a son of Dr. B. Gillett, who lived on Grove street in the house later occupied by O. D. Fitzsimmons and is a brother of Mrs. George M. McConnell. He went west after leaving this place and has been here but once since, though he is now a resident of the capital city. He was anxious to see Joseph Tomlinson, who seemed to be about the only one left with whom he was well acquainted when a resident of Jacksonville.

BIRTHDAY REMEMBERED.

Mrs. W. W. Crow, who has been an invalid for several months, had a very pleasant birthday remembrance recently. Several friends called and 111 birthday cards were sent. Mrs. Crow is a very estimable lady, and she and her husband live with her father, Frank J. Kltner, on South Main street. Though shut in for so long and unable to get about she is not forgotten by those who know and esteem her.

WILL ENJOY SOCIAL.

This evening at Brooklyn church following the prayer meeting, the young people of the Epworth league have arranged for a social hour. The time will be spent in a very informal manner and refreshments will be served.

AKERS MAKING GOOD

Former Jacksonville Pitcher is Now With Washington American Team.

The many friends of Earl Akers, who played his first professional ball in this city when we were in the old Iowa league under "Pa" Belt, will be glad to learn that he is making good in fast company. He is a member of the Washington American league team this season under Clark Griffith, and the following, clipped from Paul Eaton's letter to Sporting Life, will be read with interest. He is now in position to go to the top and say there if he will take advantage of his opportunities and all who know the stuff of which he is made believe that he will do so. Mr. Eaton's comment reads as follows:

"In the last game with Boston which Washington won after a long uphill battle, more than two hours and a half in duration, Cashion started for the locals and Bedient for the visitors. Both were yanked in the third, Cashion being wild and Bedient not being very effective. Akers finished for Washington and Clotte for Boston."

"What was more important than winning the game, though that was important enough and put the locals in second place, was the discovery that in Jerry Akers the home team has a twirler who is good and ready to take his regulation turn in any company so long as he can equal his work in today's game. When he went to the slab the first batter, Speaker, had made a home run, the second one had been passed, and the third had three balls and no strikes. Akers got out of this hole as well as could be expected, though he made an error himself which he didn't allow to rattle him. Thereafter he held the Boston sluggers down as well as most of the recognized stars could have done and ended the contest by striking out Wagner and Nunnemaker, who are not easy meat for any pitcher."

Washington has one of, if not the greatest pitcher in the profession in Walter Johnson, who is just the sort of man to take an interest in young twirlers and give him the benefit of his experience. Griffith is an adept at imparting instruction to beginners, having himself been one of the greatest box artists in the history of the game. So the outlook for our former star's making good permanently is rosy. He lost one game against Cleveland, but that is nothing to his discredit, as the Ohio bunch is composed of one of the hardest hitting set of men in the business. Washington will be at St. Louis before a very long and Akers' friends will no doubt be glad of a chance to go down and encourage him in his efforts.

In case such person has reached the age of 75 years and served 90 days, $21 per month; 6 months, $22.50 per month; 1 year, $24 per month; 1½ years, $27 per month; 2 years or over, $30 per month. That any person who served in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil war and received an honorable discharge, and who was wounded in battle or in line of duty and is now unfit for manual labor by reason thereof, or who from disease or other causes incurred in line of duty resulting in his disability is now unable to perform manual labor, shall be paid the maximum pension under this act, to-wit, $30 per month, without regard to length of service or age.

It is believed a large number of soldiers who rendered short service will receive $30 per month under the provision fixing that rate for those who were wounded in battle or who incurred disabilities in service and as a result of such wounds or disabilities are now incapacitated from the performance of manual labor.

Grain Letter.

Chicago, May 14.—Wheat—A feeling has come upon the trade that the recent advance has discounted, in great measure the severe crop losses. Professional traders take a more hopeful view and expect improved reports. Hard wheat section in the west seem to have a favorable outlook and this made much of the better traders. Nothing, however, can repeat the severe acreage loss and poor condition in soft wheat territory. The season is now so late that July will be strictly an old crop delivery. Country mills, which are now buying all the early marketing. The big wheat at this market will probably have passed into history by the end of July.

Soft wheat now commands practically $1.25 in the leading soft wheat market, St. Louis. Before harvest millers will doubtless pay $1.50 to keep operating. Hard wheat sections, while still reporting favorably, have suffered some injury, and are, of course, subject to more. The winter wheat crop will be short. Spring wheat area is probable material, but reports all indicate a decrease. May delivery holds well on its merits, there being practically no speculative short interest. There is every reason to expect July to pass out later on in same basis as May. The professionals have largely deserted the bull side and many of them are short. We consider July and September excellent investments, which bid fair to return handsome profits.

Corn—Congestion is still a factor in May. Pit conditions cause sharp rallies. Futures have begun to feel the pressure of recent sales to arrive and the certainty of liberal receipts in the near future. Southwestern markets are sufficient to cause permanent betterment in price. Wet weather has interfered with planting, but there is still prospect of an enormous acreage with every chance for a record breaking crop. Corn bulls are plenty. Sharp rallies are probable, but with a prospect of liberal supplies at terminals and a slack demand, sales of July on hard spots should be profitable.

Oats—Suffered under considerable pressure from local bears and belated liquidation. Crop advises are mainly good, although much area is flooded. Losses due to continued weather will further decrease the area and make for a prospective short crop. A temporary increase in receipts is expected with the completion of farm work. The late season, however, precludes the probability of July being other than an old crop. As old crop July will feel the effect of exhausted supplies and good prices should be paid for oats at that time. The unsatisfactory start will doubtless lead to many complaints which, in view of the short area will have a very stimulating effect. We are still firm in our view of oats values and think the present bear offers excellent opportunity for investment. Some patience and considerable money may be required to hold on, but we believe such investments will prove profitable.

METHODIST CONFERENCE ENDS MAY 28—BILLY SUNDAY SPEAKS.

(By Rev. J. W. Miller.)

Monday, May 13, was one of the most interesting of all the thirteen sessions of the present general conference. Bishop Anderson was in the chair and directed the work of the conference with precision and alacrity.

A resolution was passed setting the date of adjournment at May 28. This order may be changed to an earlier date but not likely to a later date.

Historic Scene.

Just before the morning recess a set of resolutions was presented concerning the recognition of the Chinese republic on the part of the United States. During the discussion Bishop Anderson was called to the chair by the courtesy of Bishop Anderson who was presiding. Then followed three or four addresses from delegates from the fifteen Methodist conferences in China. They were interpreted into English. Their sentiment were very well expressed and were worthy of that great subject. One of the delegates was an intelligent Chinese lady who very modestly declined to speak but was called forward and made a very thoughtful and earnest address. The entire conference was deeply moved by these addresses. There was the living proof of the value of the missionary work of the church in those noble representatives of that old empire. The relation of the United States to the young republic of China was beautifully expressed. "The oldest empire of the world is today the newest republic waiting for the recognition of the world powers," was the sentiment of one of the speakers. The ideals of the United States had guided the young men of China in this move for civil and political freedom. The resolutions urged the government at Washington to be the first to recognize the Chinese republic and to urge other nations to recognize the new government. Japan, England and Germany are slow to grant recognition.

There are many memorials presented concerning the character of the literature of the Sunday school. A resolution was presented calling upon the committee of the state of the church to bring in an early report on these memorials.

A Great Mass Meeting.

At the time announced for the anniversary of the Sunday school board Sunday afternoon an immense throng gathered at the auditorium, but hundreds could not find seats. The overflow filled the large Presbyterian church nearby. The great interest manifested shows the popularity of this department of the church. At the same hour a mass meeting for children held at another large church was over crowded by the boys and girls. The church has made a gain of 700,000 in Sunday school enrollment over the preceding four years. The enrollment now is over 4,000,000 in the Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal church. The watchword of the Sunday school leaders is a gain of 1,000,000 during the next four years.

Many Visitors.

Each day new arrivals appear in attendance at the conference. Dr. Harter of the Woman's college is at the conference. Dr. J. C. Nale is visiting the conference. Many more are coming this week. The balloting will likely begin about the middle of the week. Dr. W. H. Wilder is at the conference.

Billy Sunday Speaks.

Before the hour set for the sermon by Rev. W. A. Sunday the auditorium was filled with the delegates and friends while the outside hundreds were waiting until the first service should conclude so that they might get in for the second service. Many of the delegates, perhaps most of them, had never heard Mr. Sunday. That they were impressed is putting it mildly. They were stunned, they were moved, they were inspired, and when he had finished most of them were in tears. How he thundered his argument for the vital doctrines of Christianity. How with fierce and biting sarcasms he tore to shreds the shallow and flimsy isms of the times. Mr. Sunday was the incarnation of that spirit which is more manifest in this general conference than any for many years, of loyalty to the great cardinal doctrines of the Methodist church. Mr. Sunday said that no church had stood by him in his campaigns more loyally than the great Methodist church. How he prayed for the church that she would march on as God's mighty protest against sin in all its forms and against the wretchedness of many so-called Christian churches. Mr. Sunday gave a second great sermon to the hundreds of people who had two wait two hours on the outside for the second service. Altogether it was a great day at the general conference.

As "Ed" Howe Sees Life

Before I broke my leg, I was generally known as a hard worker; ask any of the men who know me. But I didn't enjoy it; I worked hard because I had to.

You are never ineffective when you are polite and fair, and causing others to speak well of you.

Don't promise so much that people will expect more of you than you can accomplish; say little, and do more than people think you can do.

Don't add a scoundrel to get even with an enemy by repeating his charges; a scoundrel's enemies are usually better than he is.

When a man talks about the wrongs of the people, the means his wrongs.

When I try to quit the tobacco habit, it is no encouragement to think how noble I am acting; I think only of how I would like to smoke again.

What an insignificant thing a match is; a toothpick dipped in something. Yet a single match applied in Moscow, destroyed Napoleon and his Grand Army.

You are not taking proper care of yourself if you are not educating yourself as you go along.

Everyone has his bandit days, when it seems that honesty does not pay, and that the best way is to be a wolf. But there is nothing in that sort of philosophy, except the penitentiary.

When people have confidence in you, they probably haven't as much as you think they have.

GOOD HEALTH

How To Keep It

How To Get It Back

In this column we will discuss Health and Disease and questions of general interest will be answered by responsible members of the regular medical profession. Those not proper for publication will be answered by mail if accompanied by addressed and stamped envelope, provided they do not relate to a disease from which the patient is then suffering. For such diagnosis and advice as to treatment consult your family physician.

Benefits of Vivisection.

Few people realize the enormous debt which the sick owe to animal experimentation. The whole science of the action of drugs was discovered in this way and many of the most useful remedies to mankind would have remained unknown except for trying them on the lower animals before using them on man. It was certainly more fitting to test the value of ergot on the lower animals before it was put on the market or to test it on a woman who was bleeding to death. The Wasserman test for syphilis, the use of 606, the detection of the carriers of typhoid fever and cholera, the anti-toxin treatment of diphtheria, tetanus, blood poisoning are a few of the striking examples of the value of animal experimentation in saving or prolonging the life of members of the human race.

Services of Sciences to Medicine.

The most conspicuous service which science has furnished to medicine in the last quarter century is the discovery of the cause of disease and the method of putting the system into a suitable condition to resist disease. The healthy person has great power of resistance. Science is showing us how it is possible to increase the resistance to disease to such an extent that the infecting germs will have little or no effect. The recent developments of science have made it plain that there is no creed or doctrine to which the true physician must subscribe and that the real science of medicine knows no school or no restrictions. In almost "Every so-called school of medicine there is some kernel of truth which may be available to the physician, but it has been used beyond its natural limit of application by the school in question so as to reduce it to absurdity." Science claims all that is good in all schools and has no use for anything but the truth. "Creeds" restrict and restrain. They breed distrust and denunciation. They incite prejudice and battle. If they are useful it is because they make people think and consider and a full discussion of every problem leads gradually to the elimination of error and the establishment of truth.

Grading Milk.

Recently the New York Milk committee, of which Dr. W. A. Evans, formerly health commissioner of Chicago and sixteen leading scientific experts of the country are members, issued instructions for grading milk. Those who are interested in the milk question will be glad to see the method of grading adopted in New York, as follows:

Class A—Certified milk or its equivalent produced in conformity with the requirements of the American Medical Association of Certified Milk Commissions, in dairies and from cows periodically inspected and which contains less than 10,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter and is not more than 28 hours old when delivered.

Class B—Inspected milk, from cows certified healthy by the tuberculin test and in dairies marked not less than 70 per cent on the government score card, and which contains less than 1,000,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter.

Class C—Pasteurized milk from healthy cows, but from dairies not complying with the requirements for the better grades, pasteurized under official supervision and sold in sterilized containers and showing less than 1,000,000 bacteria before and less than 50,000 bacteria after pasteurization.

Class D—Milk not suitable for drinking purposes, containing more than 1,000,000 bacteria or from farms scoring less than 40 per cent on the government card, which may be sold for cooking and industrial purposes.

WILL VISIT MOTHER.

Mrs. Carroll Cambron of San Francisco will arrive in the city the last of the week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Epler, on West State street. She was a delegate from the state of California from the Society of Colonial Dames, to their biennial convention in Washington, D. C., the sessions of which have just been concluded.

Mrs. W. F. Waggoner, Misses Lounan and Hazel Waggoner were among the visitors in the city yesterday from Carrollton.
